ORDER

-----X
KATHERINE B. FORREST, District Judge:

As the Court's law clerk discussed with the parties on April 2, 2012, the Court grants the parties' joint request for a 21-day extension of the summary judgment briefing schedule set forth in the Court's January 18, 2012 order (Docket no. 76),<sup>1</sup> provided that the parties commit to submitting one Joint Rule 56.1 Statement that contains as many undisputed facts and relevant documents as possible, following a good faith coordination effort.

To the extent that any party disagrees about certain, limited material facts, that party shall set forth its statement of the applicable facts in a separate section of the Joint Rule 56.1

<sup>1</sup> The Court accepts (to the extent provided herein) the specific dates set forth in the parties' joint letter: April 30, 2012 for the motions; May 30, 2012 for the oppositions; and June 13, 2012 for the replies.

Statement. Any such section(s) shall be filed as part of the same document as the Joint Rule 56.1 Statement.

If the parties believe that significant coordination of the Rule 56.1 Statement will not be feasible, then the Court grants only a 14-day extension of the summary judgment briefing schedule.

The parties shall submit a joint pretrial order, and the accompanying materials set forth in the Court's Individual Practices, on or before July 20, 2012.

The trial date in this matter is adjourned until August 6, 2012.

Dated: New York, New York
April 3, 2012
